Nativity Scene Starts Tonight At Liberty

Beginning tonight, Thursday, a dramatic Christmas display will be activated in front of the Liberty Baptist Church.

An enlargement and improvement over a similar presentation of last year, the pastor, Dr. Carl A. Collins, Jr., explained that the theme is to have living characters interpret scenes from the Nativity.

Elaborate scenes have been constructed for the performances. A large cast has been trained to offer dramatic showings of Nativity subjects. The scenes are to be well lighted, and choirs will presenj interpretative music.

People from the entire area are invited to come to Appomattox Tuesday evening, to see this presentation. The church is congratulated for having such a fine contribution to the Christmas season.

TO ALL THE SCHOOL TEACHERS AND SCHOOL SUPERVISORS OF APPOMATTOX COUNTY AND ALL OTHER COUNTIES AND CITIES OF THE STATE OF VIRGINIA:

Hon. J. Lindsey Almond, Attorney-General of the State of Virginia, explained and made it very plain here Monday night that all School Teachers and Supervisors would carry over with their same status in the State School Teachers Retirement Fund if the January 9th election is approved by the voters and the Gray Commission Plan is enacted into law.

If you want to keep our schools as they are today, vote FOR the election to change section 141 of our Constitution on January 9th, 1956

If you know of any one who can vote by mail, let C. W. Smith, George Abbitt, David T. Robertson, Sheriff; G. B. Buchanan, Garland Plunkett or Chas. T. Moses know within the next week. They will help you get a mail application to the person wanting to vote by mail.

Write to your friends in Virginia, wherever they are, asking them to vote FOR change of Section 141 on January 9th, 1956.
